From: Police On Target
To: jgrimes@bakersfieldpd.us
Subject: 2 Colorado Officers Hospitalized After Violent Fight with Suspect
Date: Wednesday, December 19, 2018 4:47:58 PM

Dec 19, 2018

View online version

ONTARGET WEDNESDAY

2 Colorado Officers Hospitalized After Violent Fight with Suspect

"This was one of the most violent altercations I have seen in my career," said Chief Nick Metz, who has been in law enforcement for about 35 years.

READ MORE

Michigan Officer Commandeers Kayak to Save Woman from Sinking Car

A quick thinking sergeant with the Trenton (MI) Police Department commandeered a kayak at the edge of the Detroit River after a woman was seen in a sinking vehicle in the waterway.

READ MORE

Trump's School Safety Commission Favors Arming Teachers

President Donald Trump's school safety commission—a panel led by Education Secretary Betsy DeVos—said that the decision to arm teachers to respond to potential active shooters should be left to state and local authorities, not the Federal government.

READ MORE

Sponsored by FLIR Systems

A Sixth Sense for Law Enforcement

FLIR thermal and night vision devices give law enforcement professionals a clear advantage

READ MORE

Anonymous Donor Gives $40,000 to West Virginia Police Department

The Wheeling (WV) Police Department has received an anonymous donation from a local company that will enable the agency to purchase video recording equipment, mobile cameras, digital cameras, and laptop computers.

READ MORE

UK Police Testing Facial Recognition Software on Holiday Shoppers

Police in London are testing facial recognition software on Christmas shoppers, hoping the technology will detect known and wanted criminals in the crowds.

READ MORE

New Hampshire Agency Adds Police Dog to Reduce Stress for Victims and Officers

The Hancock (NH) Police Department has added a brown Labrador Retriever to the ranks, but the dog will not be tasked with sniffing out drugs or fleeing suspects. K-9 "Rookie" will instead be on hand to help individuals deal with difficult situations.

READ MORE

Florida Deputy Lauded for Comforting Dog Struck by Car

A deputy with the Osceola County Sheriff's Office has been praised on social media for an image that was posted there showing him comforting a dog that had been hit by a car, waiting with the dog for animal control to arrive.

READ MORE

Board Again Denies Rhode Island Officer's Long-Running Disability Claim

An officer with the South Kingstown (RI) Police Department—who claims he was permanently injured on duty in 2010—was again denied his request for accidental disability pension.

READ MORE

Ohio Department Praised for "Lunch with Law Enforcement" at Local Schools

Students at schools in the Riverside School District are getting used to seeing police officers show up unannounced in the cafeteria, and according to reports, they're enjoying the visits.

READ MORE

FREE WHITEPAPERS

- What's Google, Facebook and the law got to do with it?
- Special Report: Investigative Technologies
- Special Report: Active Shooter Response
- Special Report: Mission Critical Communications
- Special Report: Keeping Schools Safe

You are currently subscribed as jgrimes@bakersfieldpd.us. Manage your email preferences.

Bobit Business Media, 3520 Challenger Street, Torrance CA 90503

Contact Us | Privacy Policy | Unsubscribe